CITY

In a big busy city

live many different silly's.

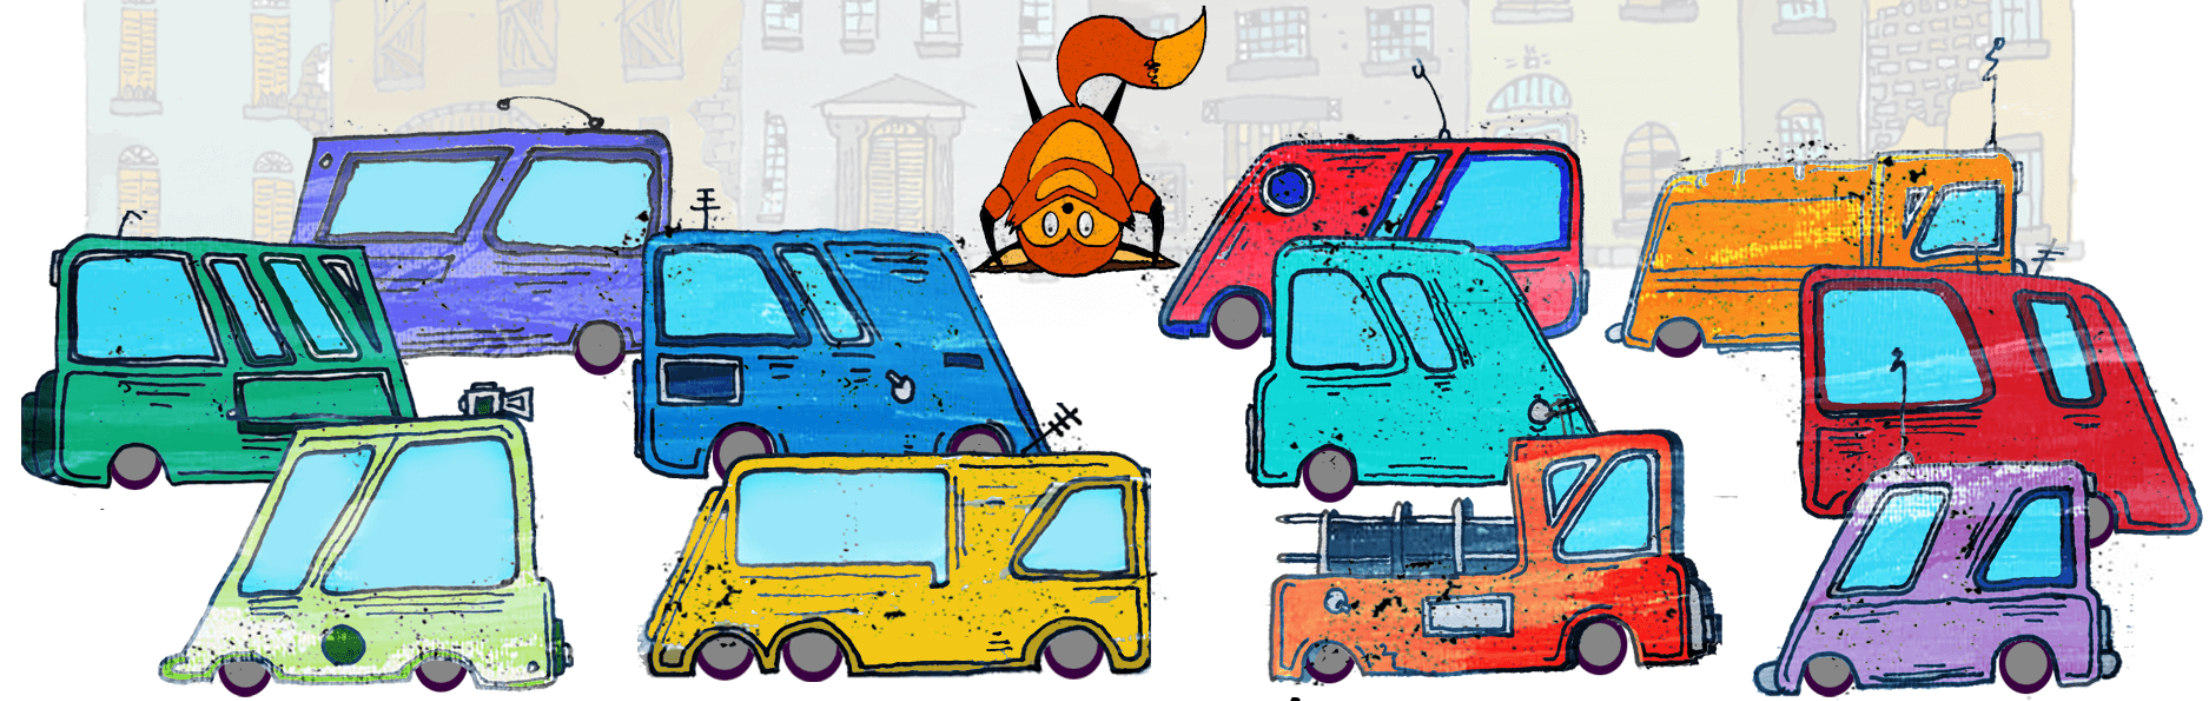

Lives a fox who is quite cheeky.

He dreams of a hike, and would very much like

Walking out of the city.

He gets a fright at this ghastly sight.

Walking is just not that easy.

He draws a map. To aid his path.

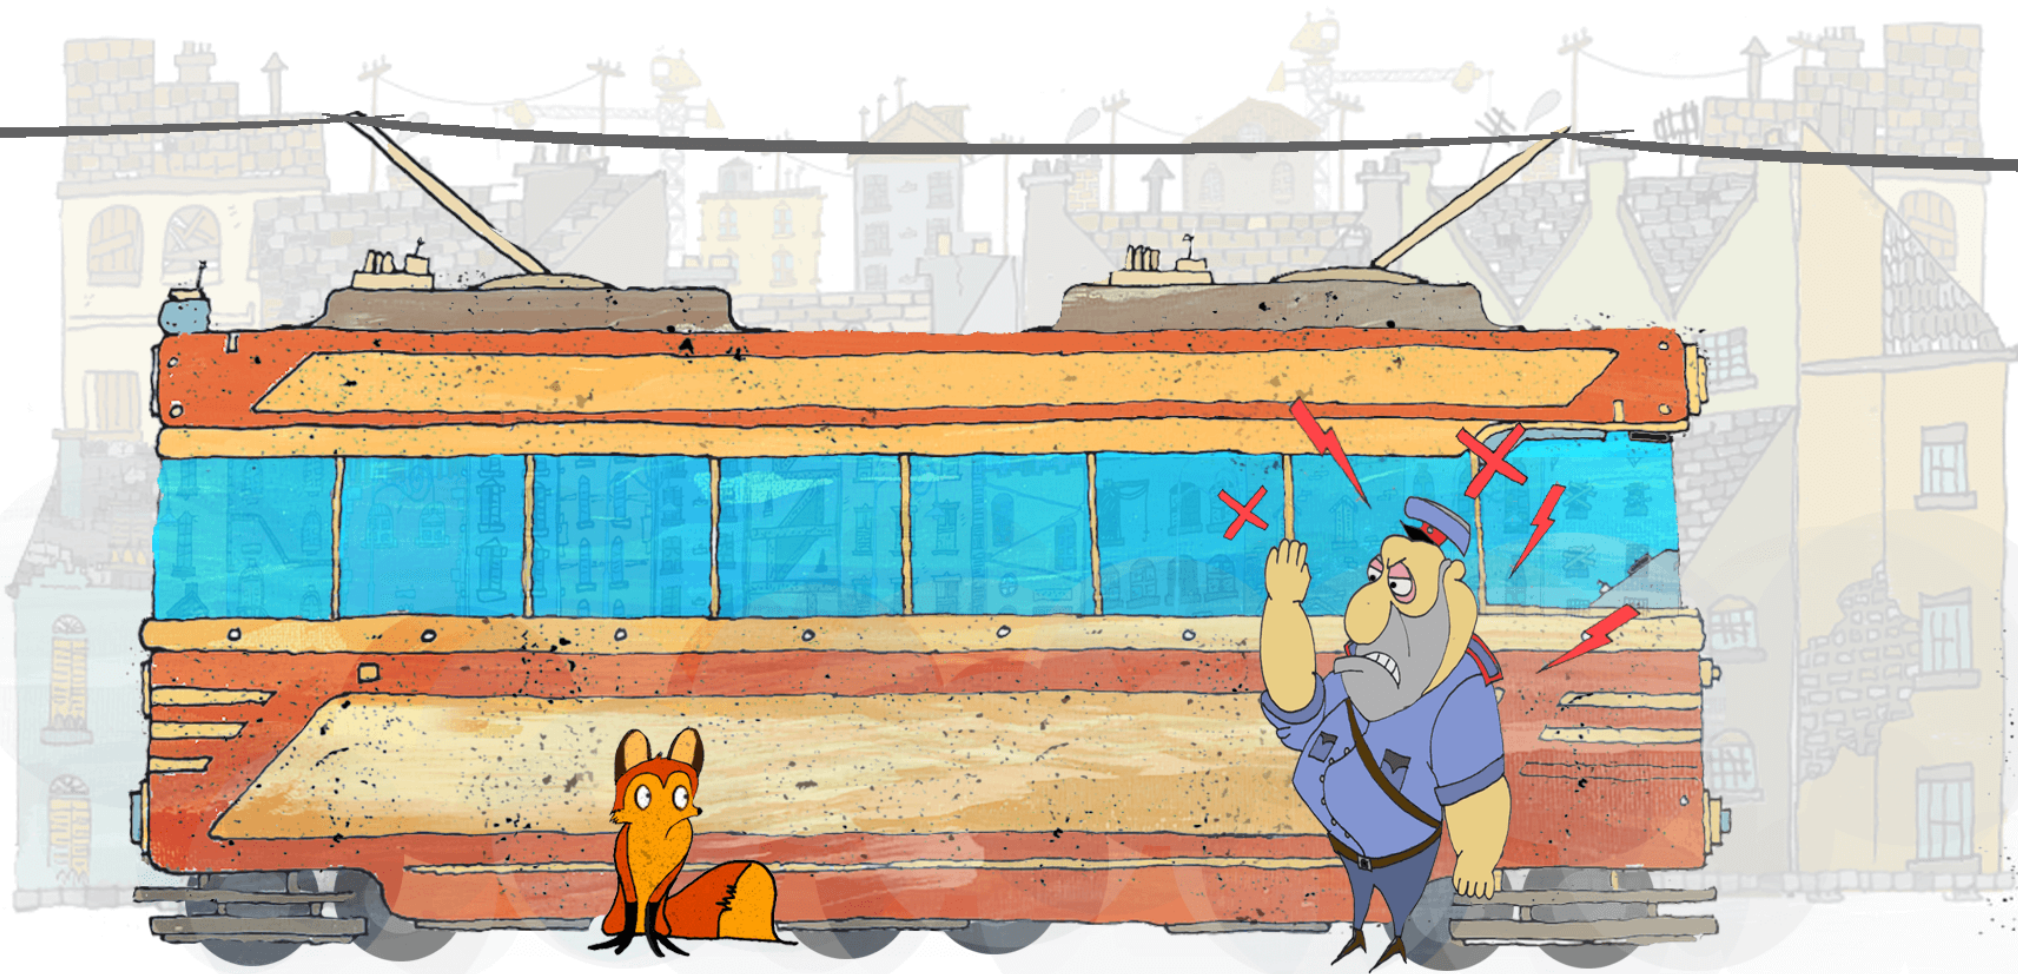

of getting out of the city.

He tries the path.

but the police get mad.

and tram drivers are a bit lippy.

Maybe on top of a bus.

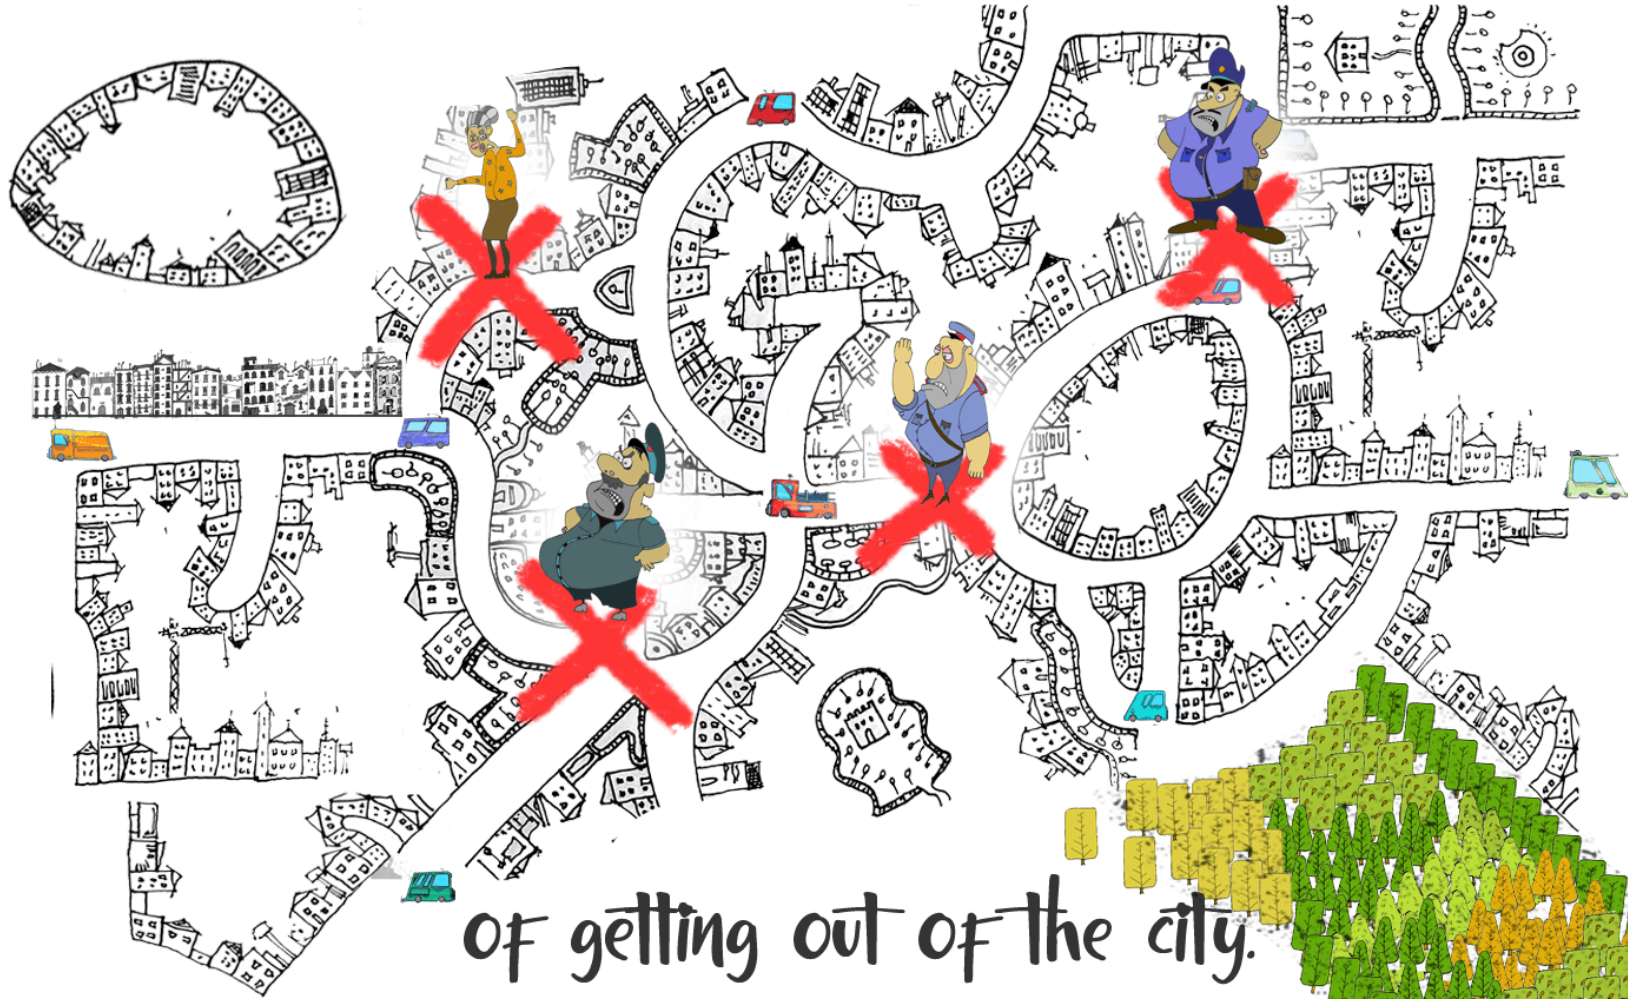

but that causes a fuss.

and phone lines are not that easy.

He checks his map. to avoid the traps.

of getting out of the city.

He digs a hole. right under the road.

Avoiding all the silly's.

Right under their feet.

he digs in deep.

Until hes out of the city
